

BarePaws Doggy Daycare is hiring!

We are looking for two part-time employees to join our pack! We are a small outdoor doggy daycare centre located in Cedar, just outside of Nanaimo. We are on 10 acres of farm land, and are open year round. If you love dogs, nature, and connecting with others, this could be the perfect job for you.

(Around 18 hours per week, with more shifts available in time - it's an awesome job)

Your Role:

You will be in charge of supervising the dogs, managing temperaments, and tending to the dog areas to make sure the pups have a safe and fun experience each day. You will be working one-on-one with the owners and will be taught our unique training method. You will also be interacting with clients daily, so customer service is a great asset.

Responsibilities:

- Getting to know each dog and give them the attention/training they need
- Accepting and handing off dogs to clients
- Maintaining the grounds, keeping them clean and secure through every season
- Ability to maintain calmness in the pack, be the leader
- Keeping a peaceful environment to prevent any dog fights, staying present to the pack
- Cleaning the dogs off before handing them back to their owners
- Using Google calendars to manage bookings and time tracking
- Being able to handle all sizes, ages and breeds of dog - cannot be afraid of any dogs
- Getting lots of puppy cuddles and kisses

Requirements:

- Love of being around all types of dogs
- Pet first aid certification is recommended
- Dog training or communication certificates are recommended
- Previous history of working with dogs is an asset
- Wonderful communication and customer service skills
- No previous criminal history
- Ability to remain calm in stressful situations
- Ability to work with Google docs and calendars
- Honest, hard-working and confident
- Able to work in any weather (we recommend getting good waterproof gear and shoes)
- Ability to walk multiple dogs on leash at once
- Be strong to handle what dogs naturally do - handle any jumps, scratches or slams they may give you

We are a small company that is growing fast, so there is lots of room to grow with us as we expand. We are a family here, we respect all beings, and treat each other with kindness and compassion; those values are a part of everything we do.
